GROWING GAUTENG TOGETHER

Dina loves her goat, two chickens and a cat. She likes to feed the wild birds that come to sit close to her.

One day Dina was playing at school. She saw children throwing stones at some doves on the playground.

Dina ran to the children.
“Don’t do that!” she shouted. “Don’t do that!
You’re hurting the doves.”

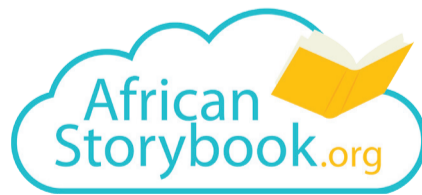

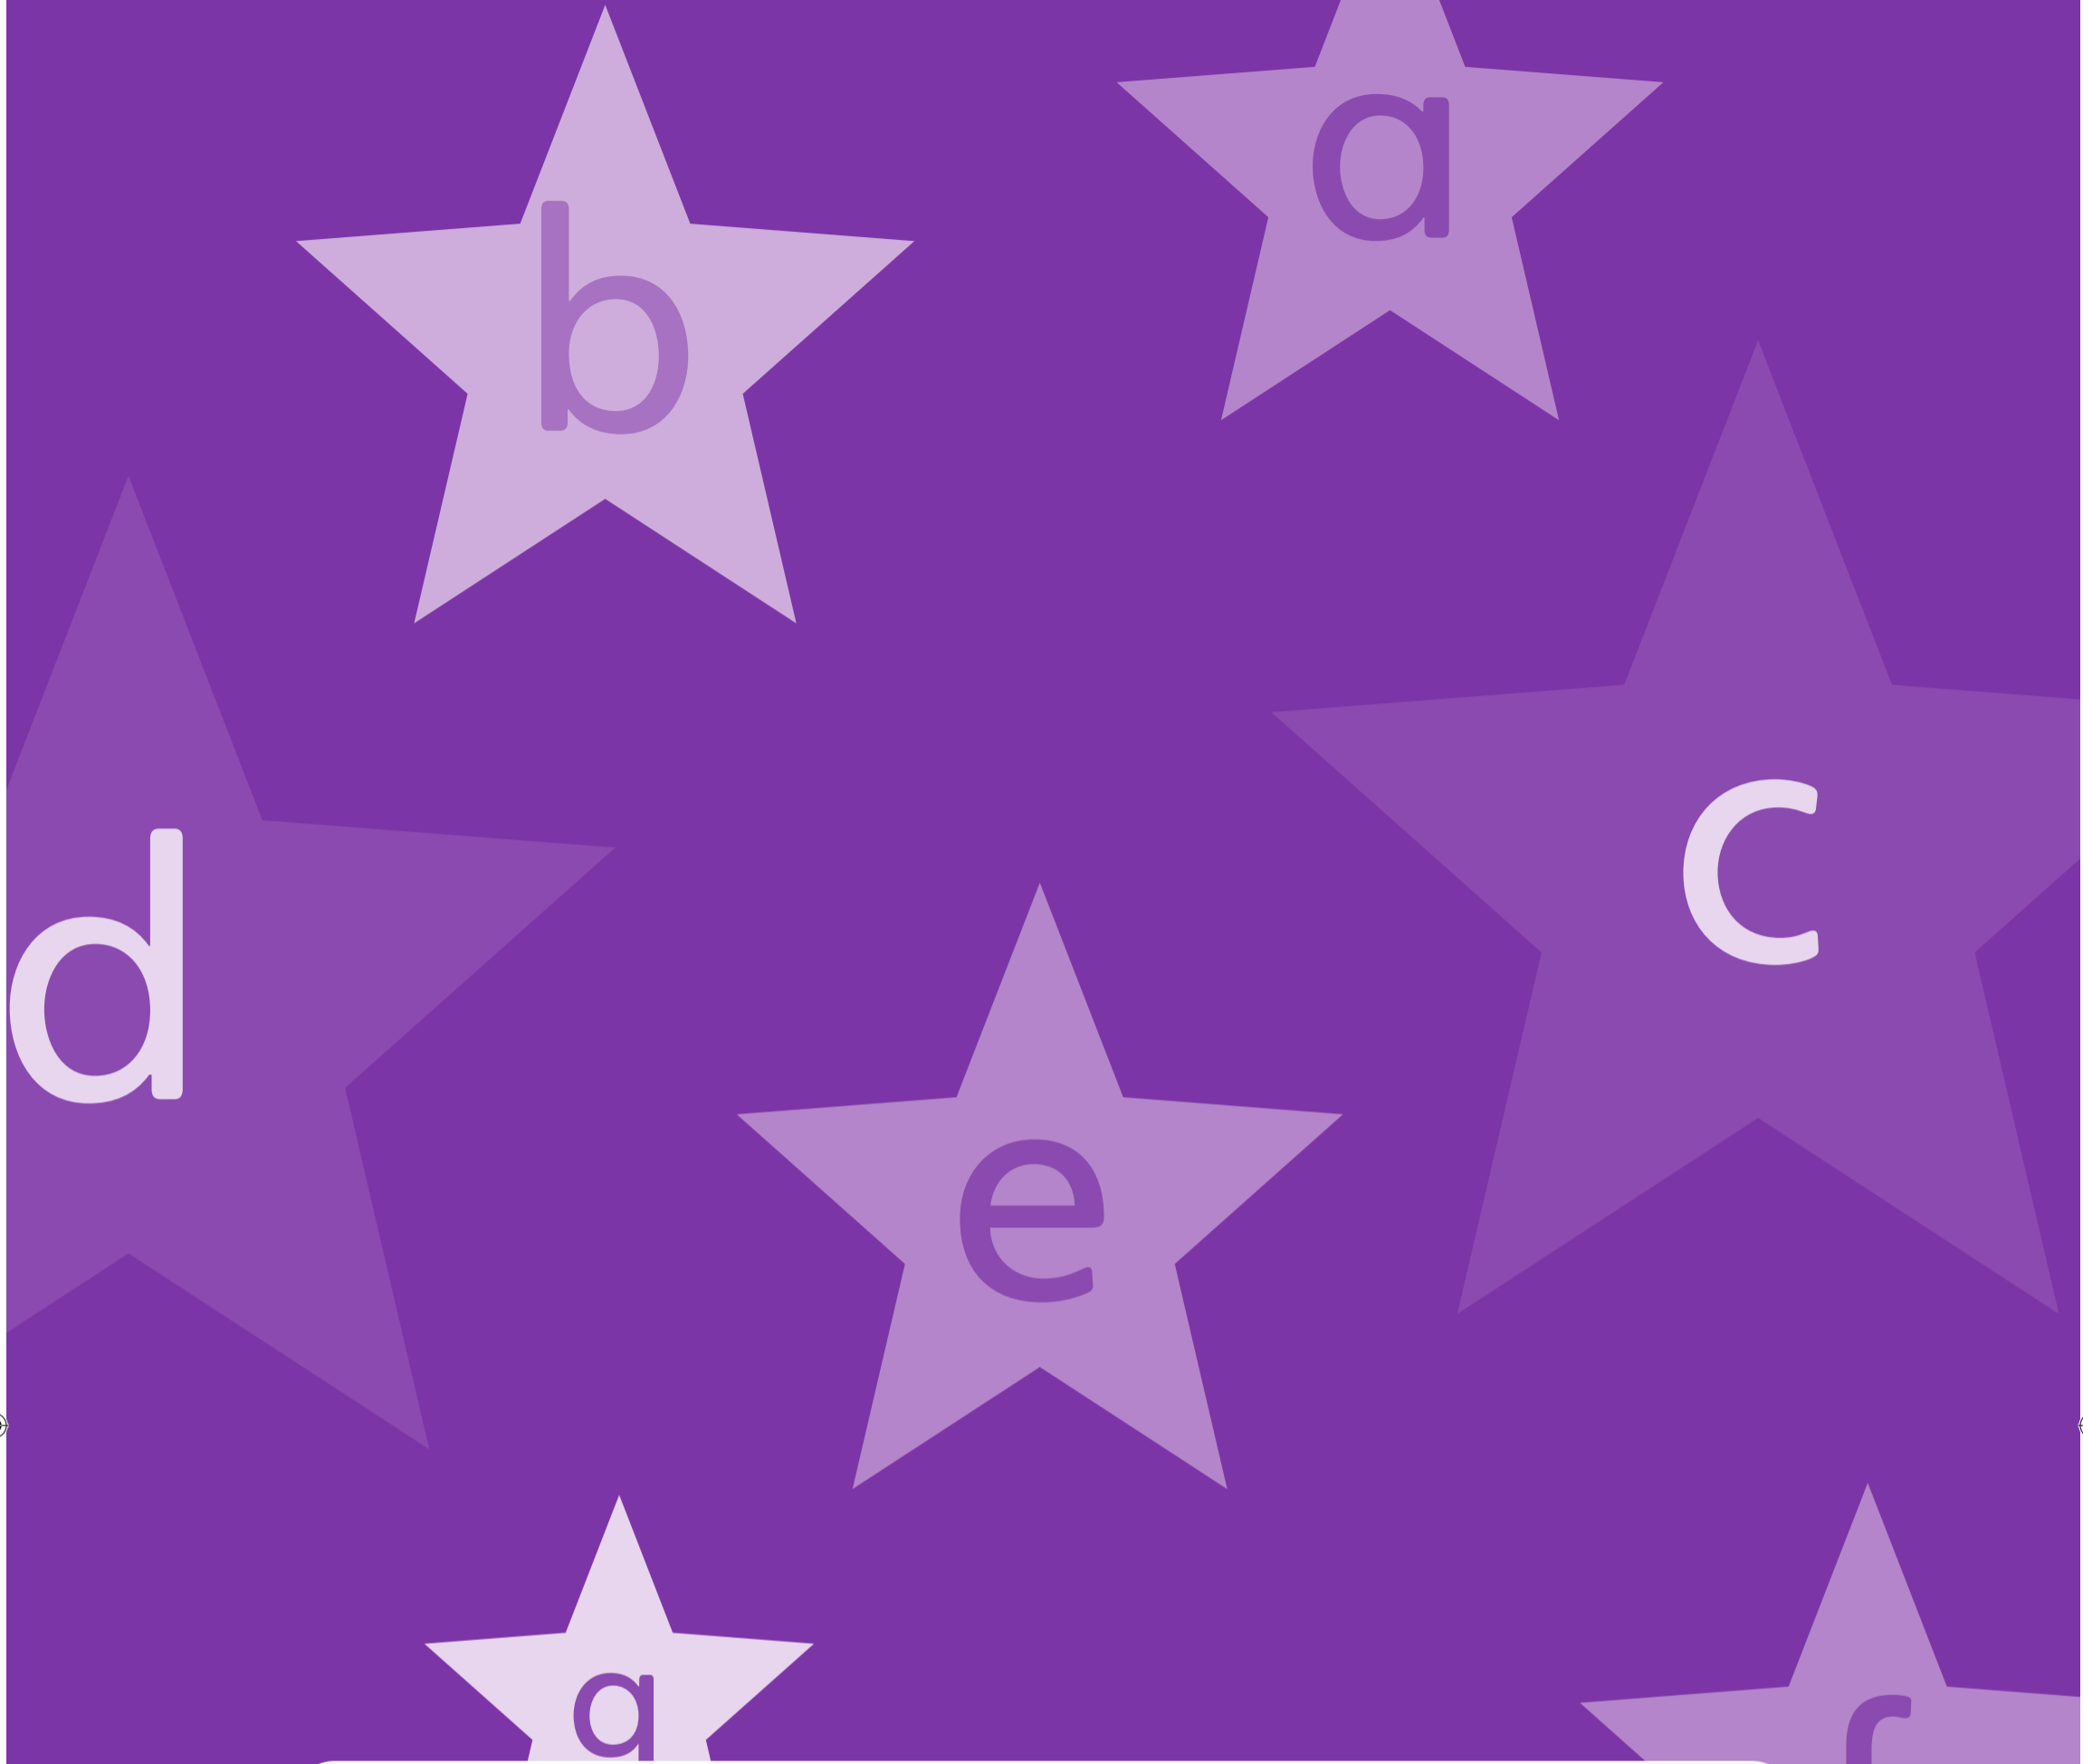

“Oh no,” said Dina. “These doves are hurt.” She decided to take them home and take care of them.

Dina kept the doves warm.
She gave them food and water every day. Soon they were healed and ready to fly again.

Dina's friends were proud of her. "Animals are our friends and we must look after them," said Dina.
