GROWING GAUTENG TOGETHER

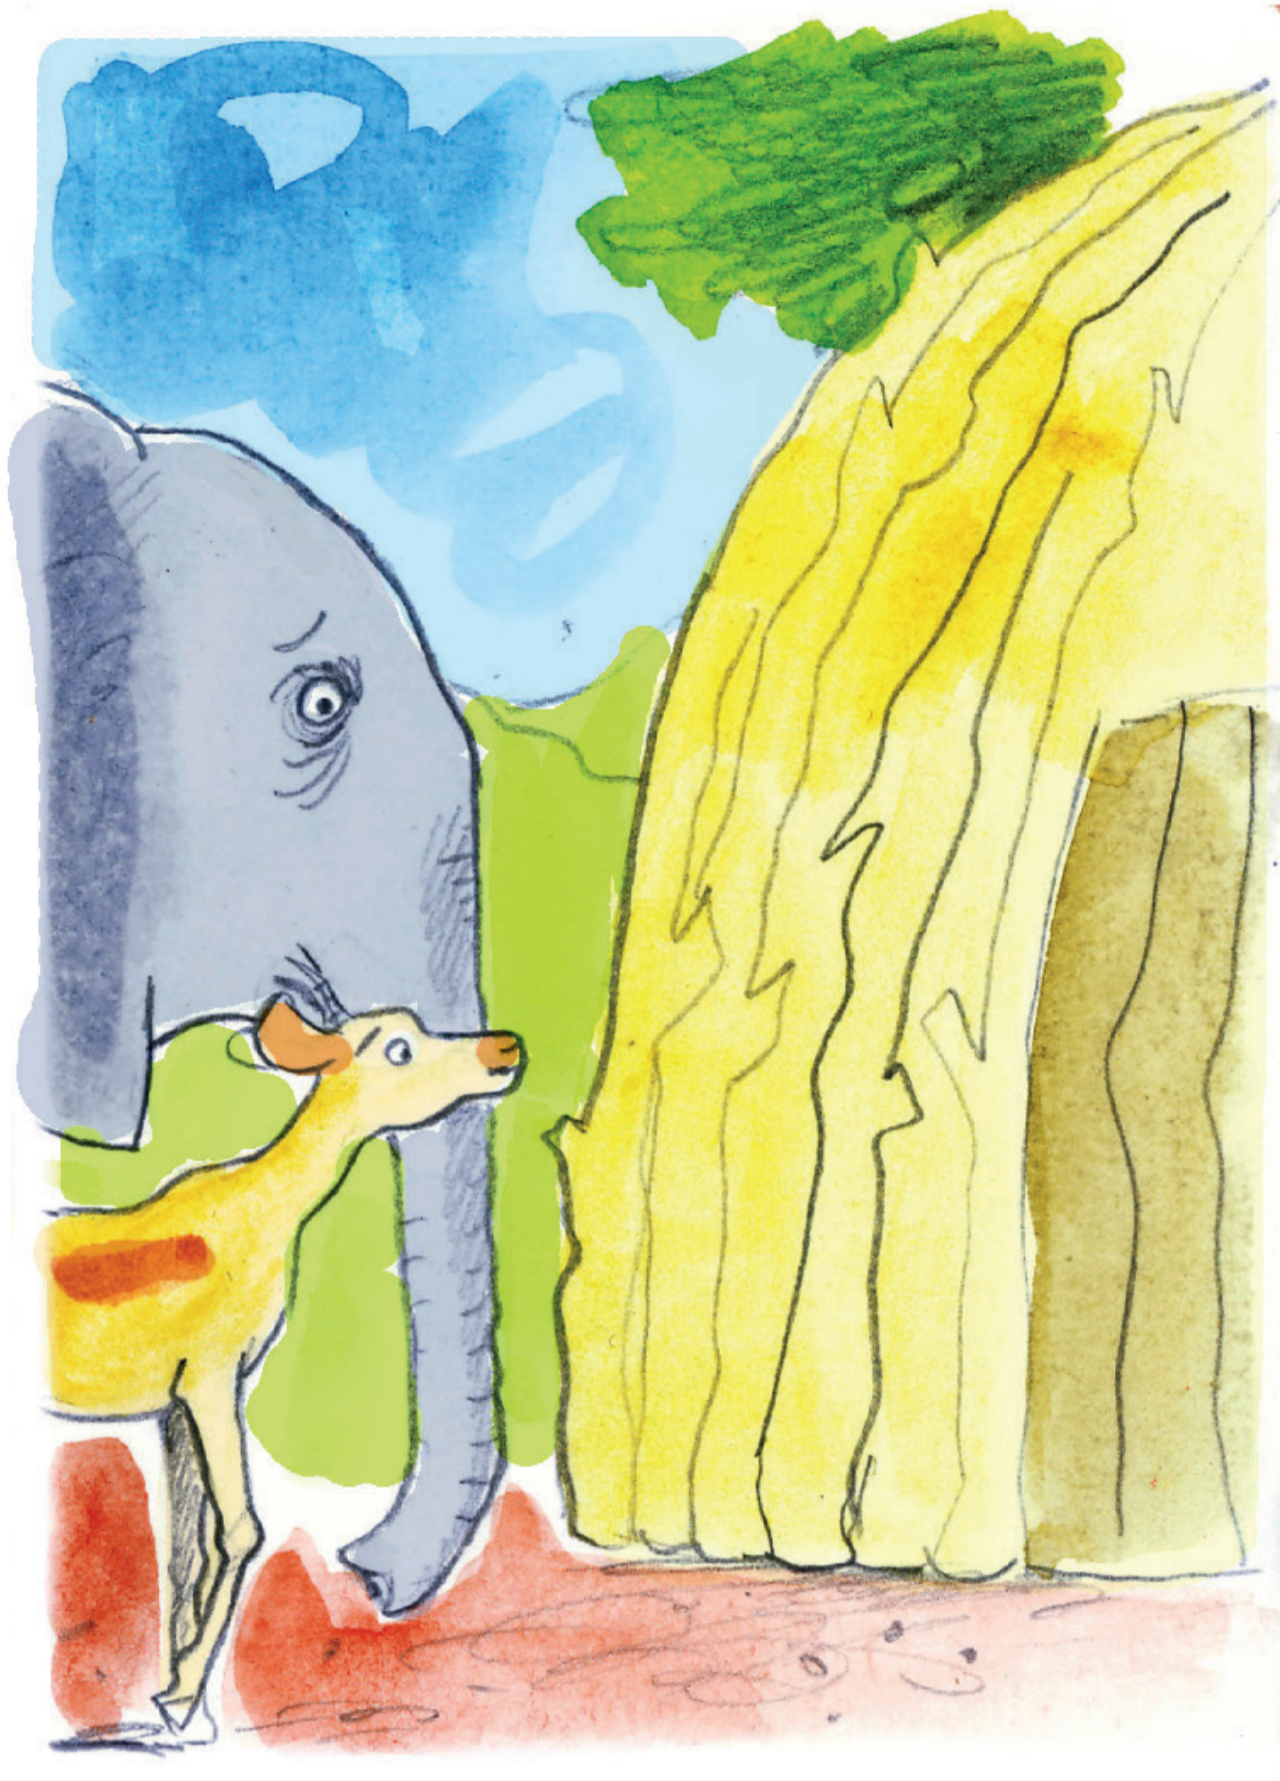

Bushbuck lived in a little house made of sticks. He always left his door open when he went out.

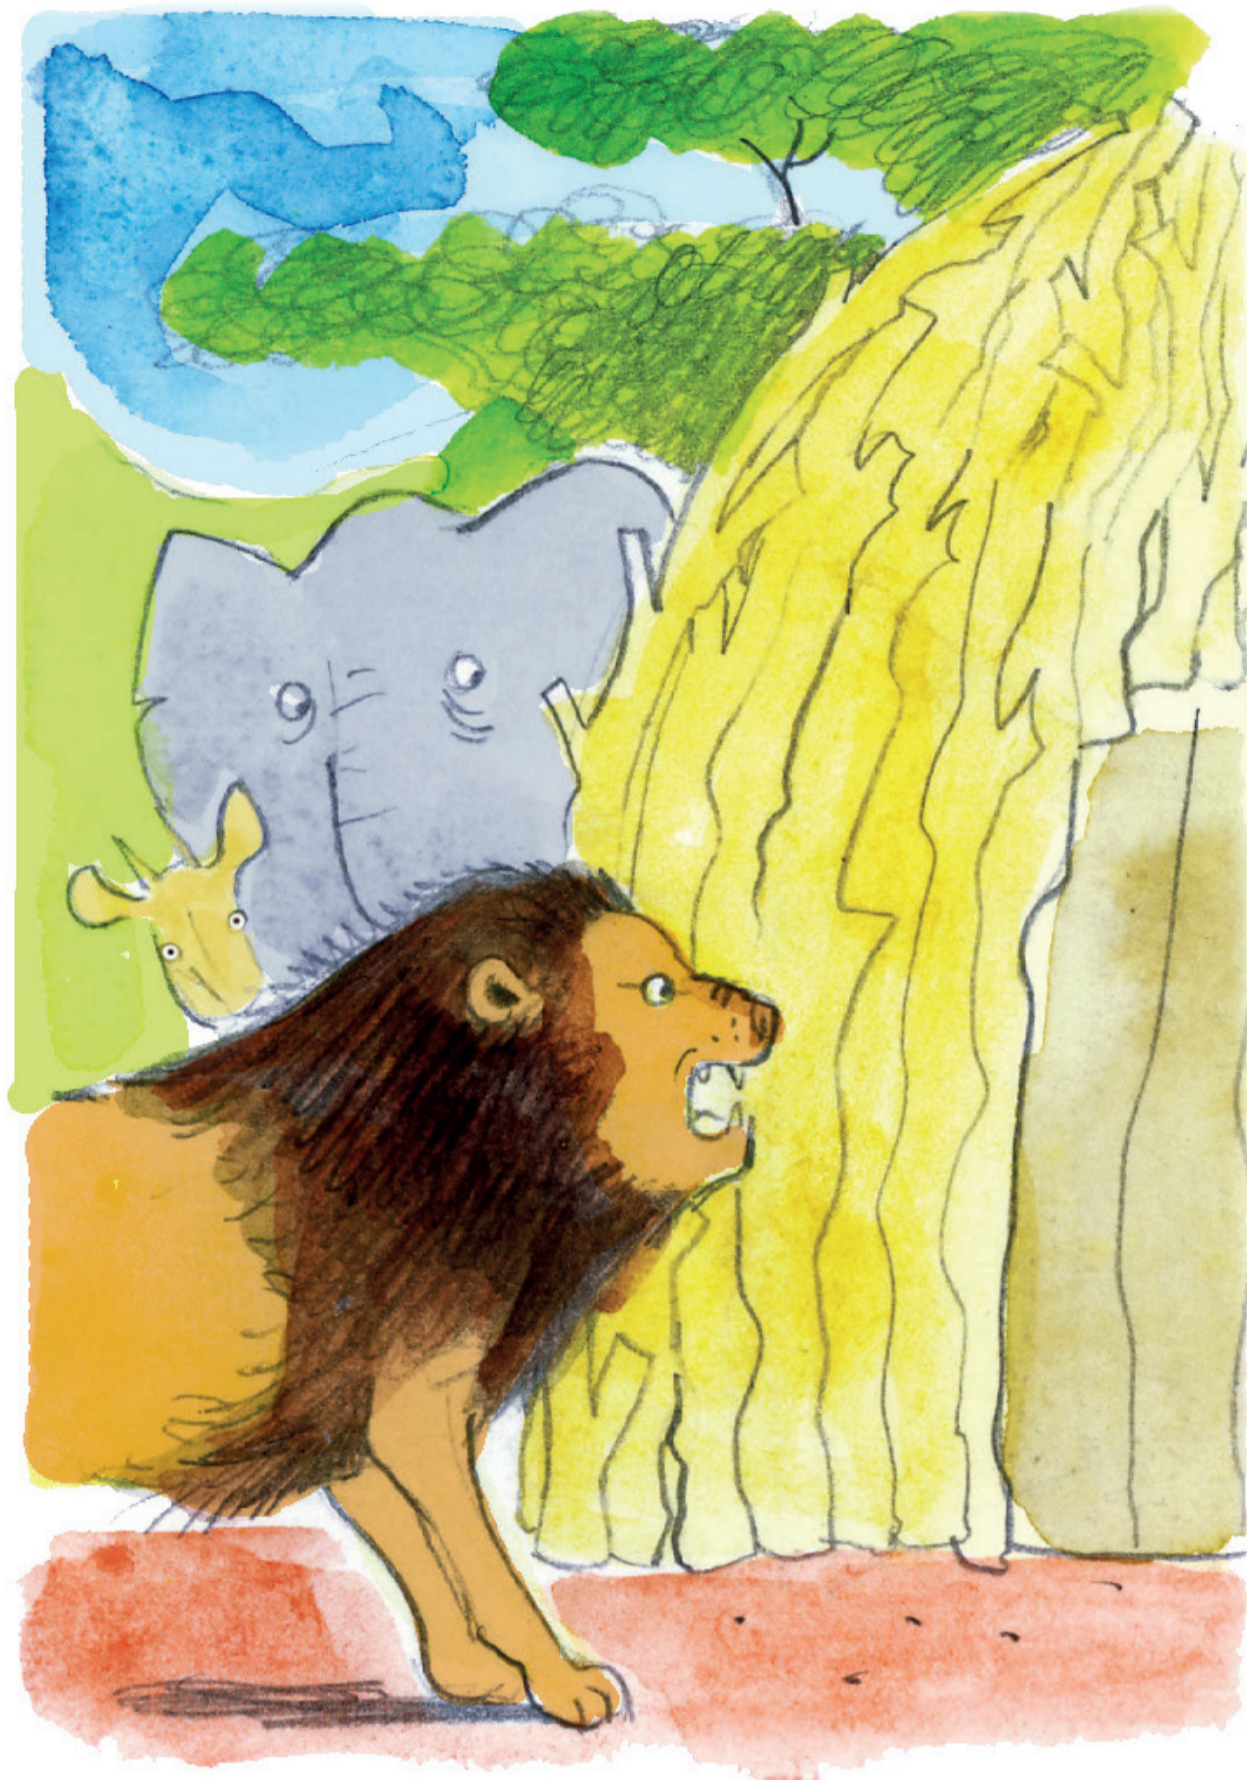

One day Bushbuck came home. The door was closed. “Do not open the door or I will eat you!” said a voice inside the house.

Bushbuck called his friend Elephant to help him. “Do not open the door or I will eat you!” said the voice.

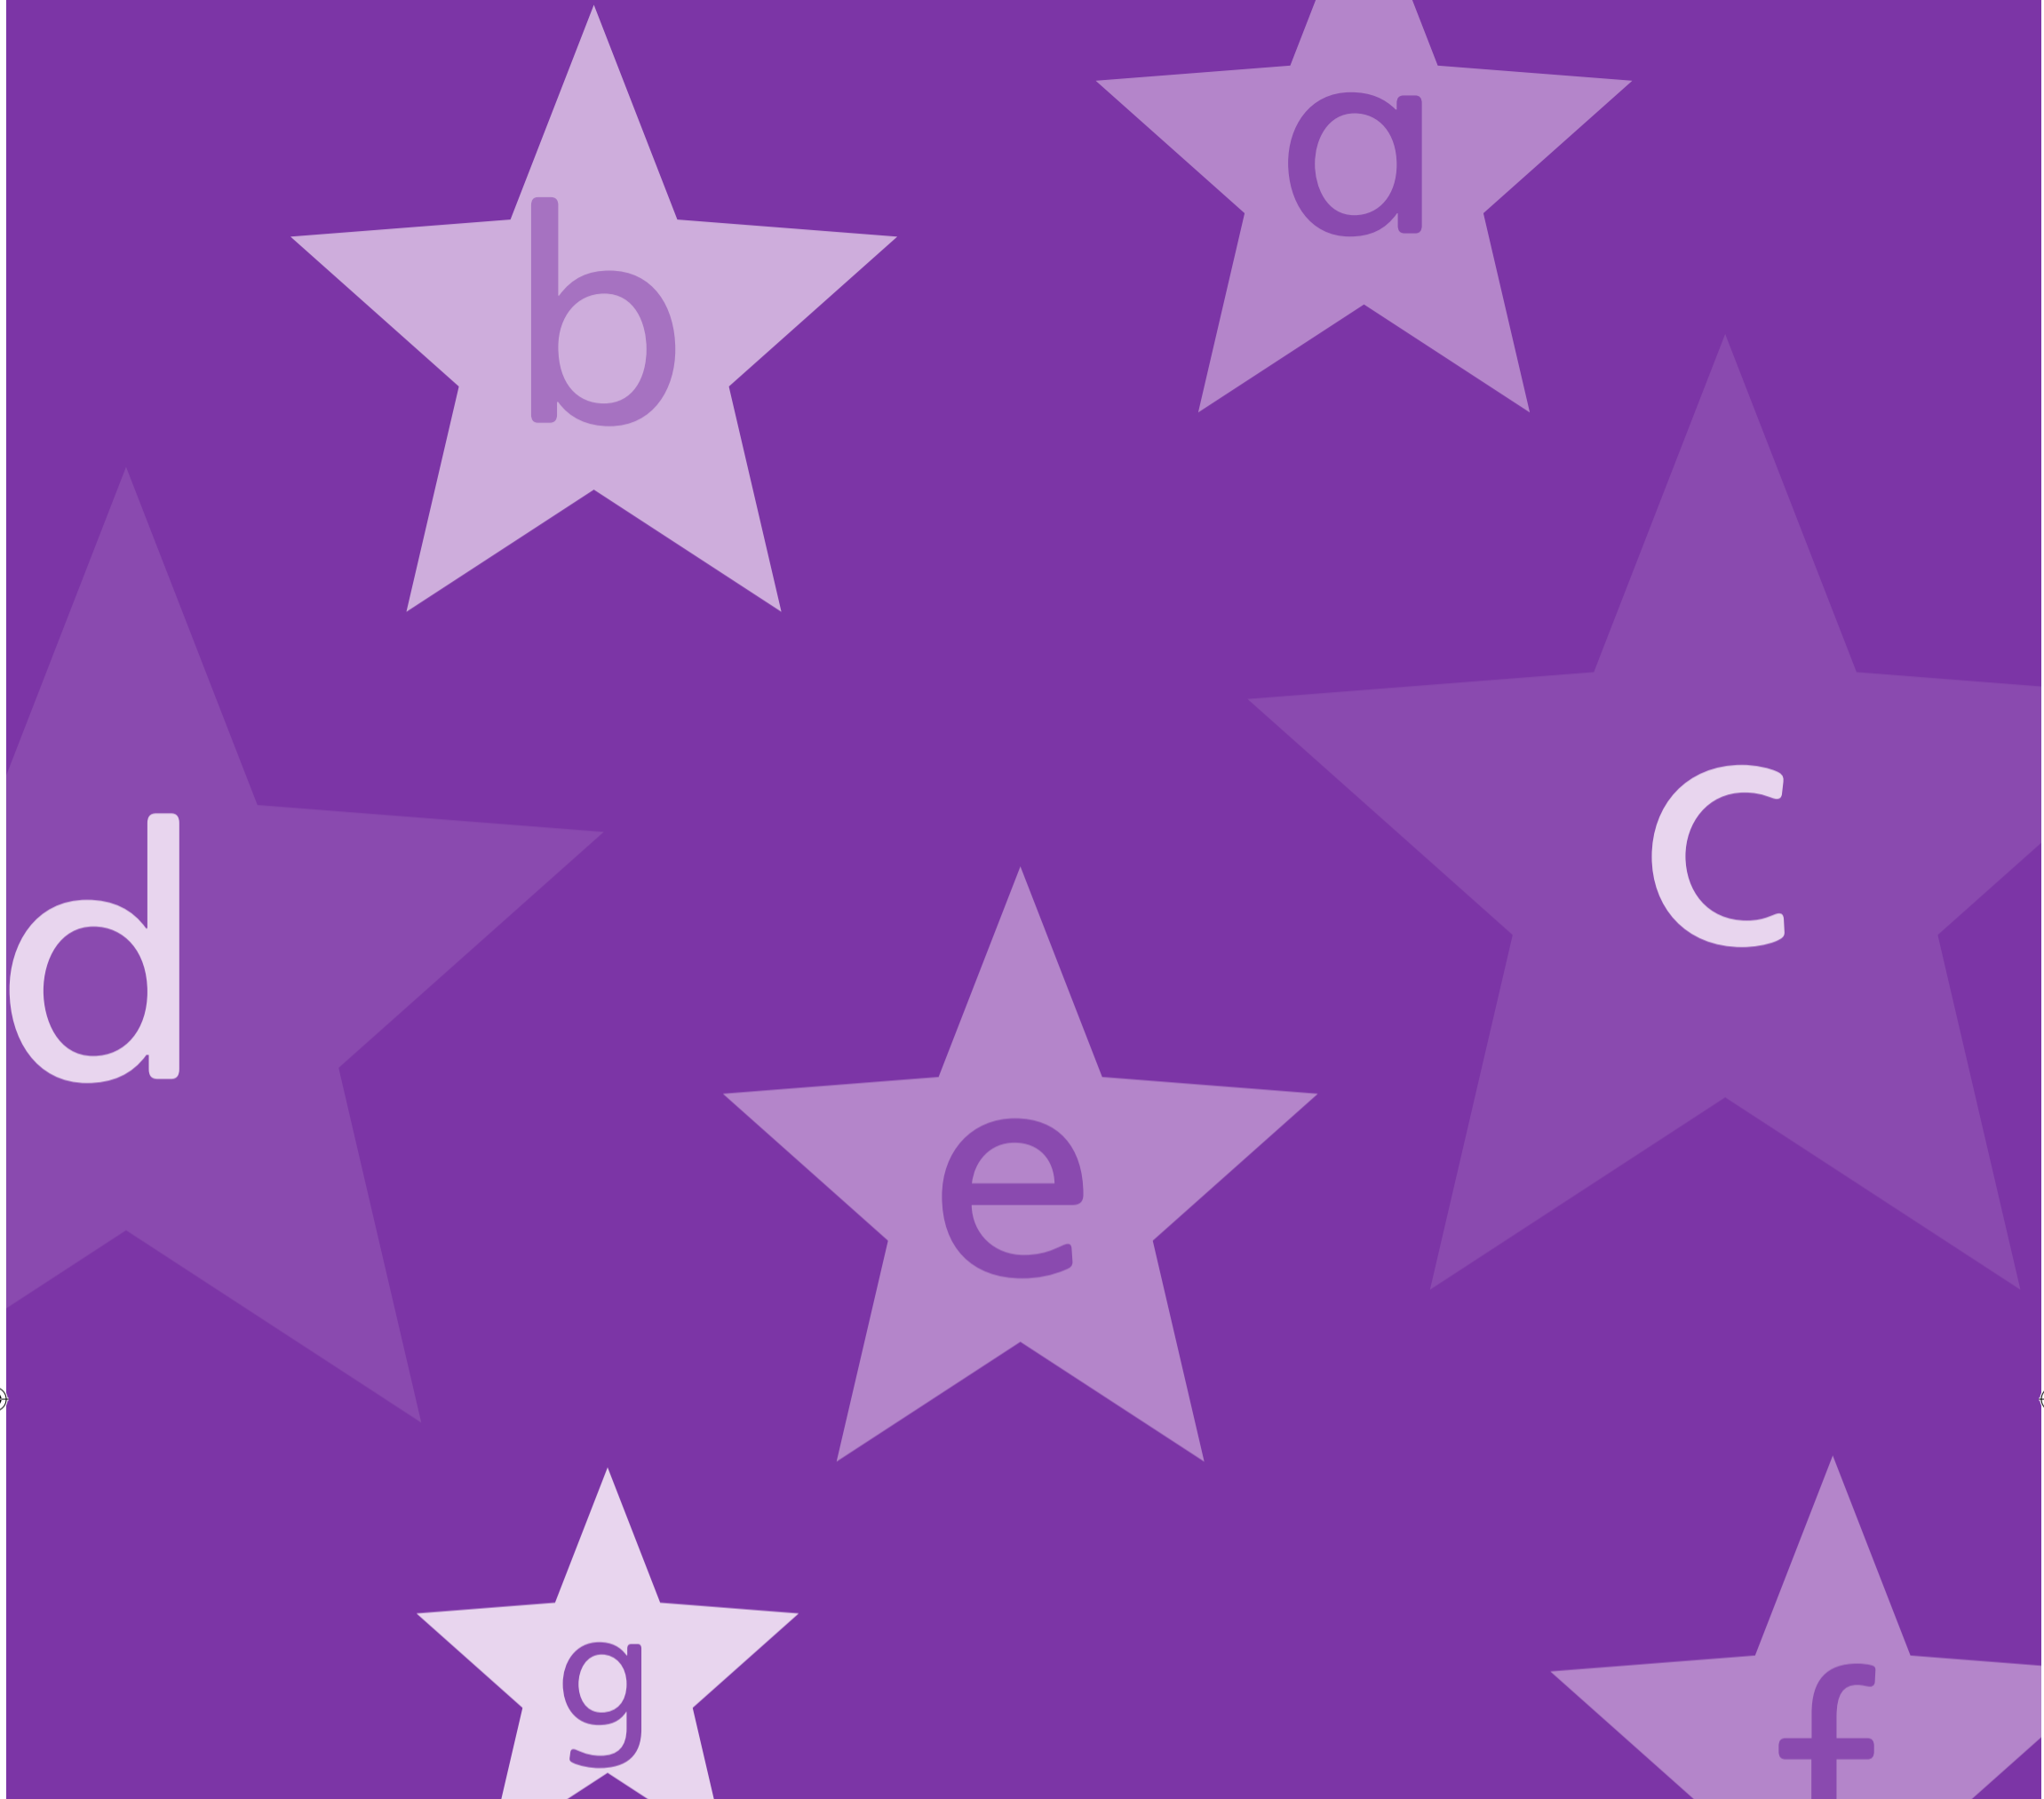

They called Lion. “Do not open the door or I will eat you!” said the voice. “What? Eat me, the king of the animals?” roared Lion.

There was a scuffling noise, the door opened and out hopped Frog. “Surprise! It is only me!” said Frog.

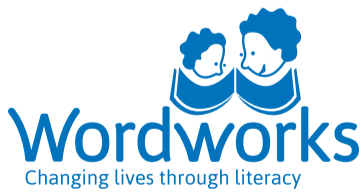

The friends laughed when they saw Frog. “Thank you for helping me, Elephant and Lion,” said Bushbuck. “You are good friends.”
